

Information on Marjorie Talle Merriman

Marjorie Talle Merriman grew up in Decorah and attended Luther College for a year before transferring to the College of William & Mary. She later received a MFA from the Maryland Institute College of Art, and for several years has worked as a professional painter and printmaker in Towson, Maryland. Her husband, Jack, is a retired lawyer who graduated from Luther College in 1947 and later served on the Board of Regents.