

Information on Orlando Warren Qualley

Orlando Warren (Pip) Qualley was born in Ridgeway, Iowa in 1897. He graduated from Luther College in 1918 and became a member of the Classics Department faculty. He also served as vice president and dean of the College during his career at Luther, which spanned the years 1918 to 1963. Qualley earned his Master's degree at the University of Michigan and his Ph.D. in 1931 from the same school. He was elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa. The Orlando W. Qualley Chair of Classical Languages at Luther College is named in his honor. Qualley passed away in 1988.