

HOT READS | 2017 | COLD NIGHTS™

B

I

N

G

O

Find a new favorite “reading spot” and read there for one hour.

Submit a suggestion for a new Leisure Reading book.

Attend any talk, panel, lecture, or presentation.

Like a post on the Preus Library Facebook page or Instagram.

Listen to a podcast.

Watch a movie based on a book.

Use a library database for work, school, or personal interest.

Ask a librarian for a book suggestion.

Study or read on the library’s FitDesk for 30 minutes.

Read a newspaper... on paper!

Visit goodreads.com for reading ideas, or to join an online book club.

Visit a library off campus.

Free Space

Read a children’s book for yourself (milk and cookies optional).

Mention @PreusLibrary on social media.

Take a selfie at a favorite library or museum.

Talk to a friend about your favorite genres.

Read a magazine or journal you have never read before.

Visit an art or museum exhibit.

Read with a child (family, friend, or at a local school).

Read a graphic novel, manga, or comic book. (PN6700-6790)

Read a book review.

Bring a friend or family member to the library.

Browse the list of new Leisure Reading books at Preus Library (<http://guides.luther.edu/c.php?g=538828>)

Strike up a conversation with a librarian!

Name: _____